

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: clan diversity, an Iraqi enrichment and power source through Arabic connection

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with several Sheiks and dignitaries from Al-Bu Khmera clan and Kirkuk governorate on 6/12/2022, and discussed with them developments in the social situation in Iraq and the dear province of Kirkuk, stating that Kirkuk is a miniature Iraq, its success is the success of Iraq.

His Eminence affirmed the importance of diversity in Iraq as a source of enrichment for Iraqi society, stating that diversity is not just a component, there is also dignified clan diversity that can also contribute to building bridges of communication with our Arab neighbors. We share the same clans between Iraq and the neighboring Arab countries and the clans extend everywhere.

H.E. referred to the nature of the political variables and the factors that contributed to the production of Mr. Al-Sudani's Government, stressing inclusion and denouncing exclusion. H.E. added that representation is important for everyone to feel their presence and role in political decision-making. H.E. expressed his joy over Kirkuk's Governorate representation in the current Government and with several components, emphasizing the need to provide services and equality in this regard. In one look, everyone is reassured and notified of inclusion and presence.
