

Sayyid Al-Hakeem lauds Diyala's adherence to its social fabric, components diversity

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem at Sheikh Mazin Rashid Mullah Jawad Al-Tamimi's host, met a gathering of sheiks and dignitaries of Bani Tamim clan on 2/3/2023, expressing his rejoicing and pride towards the attitudes he heard from the sheiks and dignitaries of the genuine clans in Diyala governorate they had toward community peace and support for the reconstruction and rebuilding process. H.E. expressed that Throughout his tour of the governorate and his meeting with many sheiks and dignitaries of clans of various components, we have touched on the high responsibility of all towards community peace and adherence to what has been achieved and support for the construction and reconstruction process.

Diyala's stability affects Iraq's security and stability in its entirety. Diyala is a mini-Iraq with an average of five governorates and a link between the North and the South. Its geographical status and social diversity are important for security and stability.
