

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Challenges identifies Iraq's opportunities to reach stability, social solidarity, political stability

In the hospitality of Al-Jabbour clan in Baghdad and in the guest place of Sheikh Jaafar Al-Jabouri and Hajj Sadiq Al-Jabouri on 21/3/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, blessed everyone there over the advent of the holy month of Ramadan, recalling the long history and he shared with Al-Jabbour clan, its sheiks, and dignitaries. His Eminence lauded the efforts of the sheiks and dignitaries of southern Baghdad in regaining security and social solidarity in their areas, indicating that Iraq has overcome numerous challenges, and that there is a grand achievement compared to what Iraq has faced.

H.E. referred to the media and the multiple and successive waves of terrorism to which Iraq was subjected. The political system suffered from demonization, political disputes, conflicts and social problems. H.E. stressed that the challenges were resolved by the opportunities invested by Iraq to reach the stage of security, social solidarity, and political stability.

H.E. referred to the factors of the Government's success in providing services and combating corruption, stating that the current Government was supported by security and political stability, social solidarity, and regional and international support for Iraq's stability and the restoration of its regional and international status.
