

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls for optimism and positivity in Iraqi society

At the host of the Albu Zaid clans east of Baghdad and at the host of Sheikh Khudhair Al-Zaidawi on 22/3/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement blessed those present with the advent of the holy month of Ramadan, recalling the common history they shared at pivotal stations in Iraq's history. H.E. stressed that Iraq was saved by the trilogy of Religious Authority, Husseini rites, and Iraqi clans, indicating that the generosity shown on more than one occasion is a Husseini culture.

H.E. also affirmed that Iraq has overcome many challenges, including security challenges and political differences. Iraq has restored its social solidarity, highlighting the Government's success factors of relative financial abundance, social solidarity, political stability, the Prime Minister's managerial capacity and career, and Iraq's place in the global energy market, calling for optimism, positivity, and abandoning the language of frustration and self-flogging.
