

Sayyid Al-Hakeem discusses political landscape with British Ambassador, reiterates Al-Sudani's government's service provision measures support

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, received the British Ambassador to Baghdad, His Excellency Mark Bryson on 8/4/2023, and renewed his support for the Iraqi Government in its measures toward service and moving the Iraqi economy and illustrated that it's taking ambitious measures in this regard, as well as discussing the political landscape in Iraq and the region, and discussing Baghdad and London relations, and ways to strengthen them. His Eminence stressed transforming the current stability into sustainable security, and affirmed that dialogue, putting the public interest before the special, and conceding to one another is enough to achieve sustained security in Iraq and the region. His Eminence reiterated his support for the steps of the Saudi-Irani dialogue and said that reaching a common understanding benefits the region and we all must push toward it.
