

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: deprivation of blessing and Allah's love is implications of usury

In the 11th Ramadan Lecture on 10/4/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, continued his speech on the letter of rights of Imam Zayn Al-Abidine Ali bin Al-Hussein "PBUT" and went on the right of hand and its implications. His Eminence said that the good or ugly act of the hand indicated that the consequences of the theft according to the Quranic verses were guilt, disobedience, betrayal, corruption, and injustice towards oneself and others, H.E. referred to unknown thefts, namely three the blocker of Zakat, who take women's dowry, who takes debt without the intent of returning it.

H.E. also referred to the third testament of the implications of the hand with untrue earnings, the most prominent of which was usury. H.E. drew attention to the implications of usury, including the deprivation of blessings, disbelief, sin, Allah's love, mercy, the prohibition of goods, and imbalance and war with Allah and his messengers according to several verses of the Holy Quran.
