

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Basrah's projects are development proof

On his tour to the hosts of northern Basra, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met Sheikh Nuri Laftah Al-Bazoni in the host of the Bezazina clan and recalled the important stations that brought him together with this generous clan and expressed his satisfaction with the level of reconstruction and development in Basrah governorate and Iraq. H.E. reiterated that Iraq lives in an unprecedented state of stability after years of challenges, praising the tournament of the 25th Gulf Cup and the generosity of the people of Basrah and how they welcomed the visitors, which gave a positive picture of Iraq's reality. H.E. also called to address problems such as water scarcity with attention to the agricultural sector and the forcing oil companies operating in Iraq to employ, train, and develop Iraqi labor as stipulated in the contracts.
