

Sayyid Al-Hakeem Kurdistan mountains witnessed Arabic and Kurdish blood mixed to defend Iraq several times

On his tour in Sulaymaniyah, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, had a position with the Takiyah of Sheik Kamil Chewesa on 12/5/2023, and recalled the journey that was filled with blood, tears, and achievements in several stages that brought us together with our Kurdish brothers.

His Eminence stated: "Every mountain in Kurdistan is a witness to the mixed blood of Arabs and Kurds to defend Iraq, its unity, and the dignity of its people."

H.E. illustrated that the values of love, harmony, and tolerance are humanitarian and Islamic values, and reminded of the importance of diversity in Iraq as a source of enrichment for the Iraqi society.

H.E. added "Iraq and the Iraqi People have gone through grave challenges through the transitional stage, including terrorism, corruption, and the new experience. There's an international and regional understanding of Iraq's reality. And there is a state of admiration for the Iraqis' ability to overcome all of these challenges, referring to the Kurdistan Region's tour to communicate with our people and families of Kurds and their political and social powers.
