

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Kirkuk's Coexistence is a message to its sons and to the whole of Iraq

In the host of Sheik Akram Zanganeh, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with sheiks and dignitaries of Kirkuk clans from all components and in the presence of the governor, recalling the values of community coexistence in the city, reiterating the preservation of Kirkuk as the capital of diversity, indicating that success in Kirkuk will spread to the whole of Iraq, so its sons have a double responsibility to coexist among themselves and provide a model for the whole Iraqi society.

His Eminence called for upholding the unity of the position, contemplating the future, and taking lessons from the past without dwelling on it, indicating that Iraq has reached a historic moment in which it is approaching standing on the right path. H.E. stressed the importance of components and managing diversity through them, and this great diversity must be invested in bridging Iraq's relations with the peoples of the region and the world.

H.E. called to adhere to the moderate discourse and reject the convulsive discourses that achieve the personal interests of their owners while people lose and society is harmed, pointing to the importance of positions and taking them at the right time and in the right place, which makes them firm and established and the focus of consideration for generations.
