

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: society's power is the state's power, its economy, and Foreign Relations

From Dear Kirkuk, Kirkuk of love, brotherhood, and peace, and in the prosperous host of Sheik Sufyan Al-Nuaimi, Emir of the Al-Niaim tribe, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a generous gathering of sheiks and dignitaries of the Al-Niaim tribe and Kirkuk governorate from all components. H.E. praised the state of coexistence in Kirkuk, calling for upholding, maintaining, and perpetuating this coexistence.

His Eminence also pointed out the importance of the Iraqi tribes as representatives of society, pointing to the difficult conditions that Iraq has lived through and emerged from and to the eternal tales of coexistence that the society has written in the darkest conditions.

H.E. said that the strength of society is the strength of the state and the strength of its economy, political reality, and foreign relations, stressing the strength of the Iraqi individual and the importance of freedom of expression as one of the achievements of the democratic system
