

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: international, regional will for Iraq's stability

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of elites and competencies in the National Wisdom Movement On 15/7/2023, and blessed them with Eid Al-Ghadeer Al-Aghar, calling for investing in the security, political and social stability to achieve sustainable development and the aspirations of Iraqi society, indicating that Iraq, by experience, is able today to manage its internal differences and formulate them in a way that facilitates and enhances decision-making.

His Eminence also stressed that Iraq today is seen as a station for the stability of the region, as there is an international and regional will for the stability of Iraq. H.E. also called for broad, conscious, and effective participation in the upcoming elections and meeting the requirements of participation, including updating biometric cards, and also indicated that the advantage of these elections lies in the possibilities available to the provinces through the budget, which requires the formation of efficient local governments produce competent and honest governors in addition to the first elections held by law the same as the law of the House of Parliament.

His Eminence stressed the need to work to serve the public, indicating the importance of distinguishing between actions and achievements, as statesmen are more concerned with achievement than drowning in procedures.

His Eminence called for pride in Al-Hikma National Project, the moderation and centrism project, stressing that wisdom is open to everyone and has acceptability by everyone.