

DURING HIS RECEPTION FOR THE MINISTER OF YOUTHS AND SPORTS AND THE MINISTRY'S CADRE, SAYYID AMMAR AL-HAKIM STRESSES THE ROLE OF THE YOUTH MOVEMENT IN ACHIEVING PROGRESS AND CREATIVITY IN ALL FIELDS

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed the necessity for the ministry of youths and sports to be present in all fields of life, emphasizing the role of the youth's movement in achieving progress and creativity in the fields of sports, education, science, arts and others.

His Eminence renewed his emphasis during his meeting with the minister of youths and sports, Jasim Muhammed Ja'far, and a large number of the ministry's cadre which included advisors, deputies and serving directors on Monday, October 1, 2012 at the Baghdad office of His Eminence on looking after the Iraqi child and paying attention to him in his capacity as the first need for the youths' segment. He drew attention to the importance of the role of various organizations and foundations in achieving an effective youthful movement in the country especially in the shade of globalization and modernity in the world, stressing that the youthful movement is broad, and it needs more care, supervision and interest.

The minister of youths and sports had acquainted Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the ministry's activities, explaining his ministry's effort to develop its performance and rise in carrying out its obligations with the resources available to it.