

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim renews the call to lighten the weight of the political crisis and to activate the agreements based on the constitution.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim has stressed that we have to work in a broad and big way to alleviate the weight of the political crisis, clear the air, resolve the problems and activate the agreements among the groups that are based on the constitution, lauding the important steps undertaken by the National Alliance in contacting the various groups in order to achieve the national reforms that are needed in the present circumstance.

This came up during a meeting between the Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq and a delegation from the Council's leaders with the President of the National Reform Movement, Dr. Ibrahim al-Ja`fari, in the evening of Wednesday, October 3, 2012.

In a press conference after the meeting, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called for undertaking decisive and clear measures to treat the security deterioration which the country is witnessing in order to protect the citizens' lives.

On his part, Dr. Ibrahim al-Ja`fari stressed the keen interest of the National Alliance to solve the outstanding dossiers in a consensual way with all slates and the keen interest in the unity and uniformity, pointing out to the viewpoints between both sides being identical in all the dossiers which were discussed.
