

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim says, "The path of those who defend their freedom and dignity from the Kerbala of dignity to the usurped Jerusalem is one and the same."

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), has stressed that the path of those who defend their freedom, dignity and honor from the Kerbala of glory and dignity to the usurped Jerusalem is one and the same. His Eminence stressed in his speech, which he delivered on the occasion of the 9th of Muharram of Imam al-Hussain (Ú) at the million-man gathering who brought the occasion to life on Saturday, November 24, 2012 at the Industry Club stadium in Baghdad, which was transmitted directly by visible news media from Baghdad with 13 country governorates, that Palestine will remain a bleeding wound until Allah affects His promise to grant the believers victory. His Eminence regarded the arrogance and barbarism with which the Israeli army dealt with the Palestinian people came as a result of the Arabs and Muslims being divided and their positions dispersed.
