

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim praises the role played by His Excellency President Jalal Talabani in limiting the scope of disputes

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), has stressed that the role played by His Excellency the President of the Republic is necessary to get the country to reach the shores of safety. This came up during the meeting which was attended by these honorable men: Fadhil Mirani, secretary of the political office of the Kurdish Democratic Party and Dr. Barham Salih, when a discussion went on of the overall ongoing developments and the problems facing the political understandings in addition to transcending the chockes that block the path of the political process in the country.

Both sides stressed the importance of urgent work and sincere effort by leaders of the political blocs to ensure an area of national dialogue distantly from tension and media hype and to resort to understandings based on commitment to the constitution and the national agreements. Both sides also stressed the necessity of keenness about democracy and the high sense of responsibility towards the challenges that face the country and the political process during this critical circumstance.

The meeting was also attended by Mr. Baqir Jabr al-Zubaidi, head of the parliament's Citizen Bloc and by Shaikh Hameed Mu`allah al-Sa`idi.
