

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim joins Nasiriyya's folks for the march to Kerbala to commemorate the Arba`een Ziyara

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), joined the million-man march heading to holy Kerbala to commemorate the Arba`een anniversary of Imam al-Hussain (peace with him) in Nasiriyya governorate on Wednesday, December 19, 2012.

His Eminence congratulated this million-man march to Kerbala and the participants' belief in the case of Imam al-Hussain (peace with him) and their renewing their allegiance to the Progeny of Muhammed, peace with them, and reviving their rituals.