

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls for calm and commitment to the legal procedures to solve the current crisis

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), met the head of the National Alliance, Dr. Ibrahim al-Jaafari, at the latter's office in Baghdad on Saturday, December 22, 2012.

Both sides discuss the political developments of the scene in Iraq and the National Alliance's role in solving the present crisis. His Eminence stressed the necessity of calm rather than escalation and of the adherence to the legal procedures to solve the current crisis.
