

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim inspects the Hussaini processions in Kerbala

Within the frame of his presence in Holy Kerbala to revive the Arba`een Ziyara, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), inspected the Hussaini processions spread throughout Holy Kerbala on Monday, December 31, 2012.

His Eminence congratulated the servants of al-Hussain (as) on the great divine rewards they will be receiving, on their amalgamation with al-Hussain's plan and with the Hussaini issue, explaining that the Islamic creed in Iraq has been safeguarded by several matters one of which is reviving the religious rituals and serving the pilgrims of Imam al-Hussain (as).
