

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim shares the grief of the tribe of Bani Eisa on the departure of Waheed al-Eisawi

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), shared the grief of the tribes of Bani Eisa in Iraq on the occasion of the departure from this world of Waheed Abboud al-Aneed al-Eisawi, general sheikh of the tribes of Bani Eisa of Tai in the mid-Euphrates when His Eminence attended the mourning gathering held for the soul of the lost one at the Zuwiyya Mosque in Baghdad on Sunday, February 17, 2013.

His Eminence lauded the pivotal role played by Iraqi tribes, including the tribe of Bani Eisa, in safeguarding Iraq, Islam and the national unity. He offered his condolences to the family of the deceased man and the Bani Eisa tribe and all Iraqi tribes on the occasion of the departure of Sheikh Waheed al-Eisawi from our world, pleading to Allah, the most Praised and the most Exalted One, to surround the deceased man with His spacious mercy and to grant his family, relatives and members of his tribe patience and solace.
