

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim welcomes a delegation representing dignitaries and personalities from Nineveh governorate

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), welcomed at his Baghdad office on Thursday, February 21, 2013 a delegation comprised of dignitaries and personalities from Nineveh governorate. During the meeting, His Eminence listened to viewpoints of the visiting delegation in various issues that concern the governorate in addition to the problems facing residents of some areas and villages in it. Also, His Eminence expressed his valuable remarks regarding various issues and problems which were submitted during the meeting.