

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim welcomes Qasim Dawood, head of the Solidarity Bloc

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), received at his Baghdad office on Sunday, March 10, 2013, Mr. Qasim Dawood, head of the Solidarity Bloc. His Eminence stressed the importance of participation in the elections and that competent candidates should rise, men whose main concern is to provide the necessary services for the citizens of their governorates.

Both sides discussed the political developments in the country and the subject of the upcoming governorate council elections.

On his part, Mr. Qasim Dawood praised the efforts exerted by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim to solve the crisis and strengthen the national concord.