

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim welcomes Muhsin Shraidah, delegate of the World Peace Organization

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq (ISCI), welcomed at his Baghdad office on Thursday, March 14, 2013 Mr. Muhsin Shraidah, delegate of the World Peace Organization (WPO).

During the meeting, the dossier of the Organization in the region and world was discussed. His Eminence stressed the necessity of disseminating the culture of coexistence, peace and love among nations.

On his part, the delegate of the World Peace Organization lauded the proposals of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, regarding His Eminence as one of the most prominent personalities that advocate the culture of dialogue, the acceptance of the other as well as peaceful coexistence.