

Sayyed Ammar al-Hakim Receives Jordanian Minister of Endowments Dr. Mohammad Nouh

Sayyed Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi Islamic Supreme Council met in his Baghdad office the Jordanian Minister of endowments Dr. Mohammad Nouh. The meeting took place on Saturday 27-04-2013. The two discussed bilateral relations between the Iraq and Jordan and their peoples.

For his part, Minister Nouh praised the suggestions of Sayyed Ammar al-Hakim and his bright deals. He also praised al-Hakim's idea of putting a contract based on the teachings of the Holy Quran and prophetic sayings as well as the teachings of the Prophet's household to organize the relation among Muslims.

It is worth mentioning that Sayyed Ammar al-Hakim had called for establishing the Islamic contract during a speech he gave in the International Islamic conference for dialogue and proximity which was held in Baghdad today.