

During his Visit to the Friend State of Kuwait, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Attends a Lecture at the Diwanyiah of Academics

During his current visit to the friend state of Kuwait, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, attended Tuesday, 16/7/2013, a lecture at the Diwaniya of Academics, in the Kuwaiti capital.

The lecture tackled the developments in the region, the current rapidly evolving events and the role of Arab elites and intellectuals in spreading the culture of tolerance, moderation and opposition of the extremist movements which are deviated from the original Islamic and Arabic course.