

In the seventh Ramadan night gathering, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: The Right Path in Life is the State of Moderation, Virtuousness and Determination to Abide by the Right

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim assured that the path of life is that of commitment, moderation, virtuousness, determination and following the Prophet of Allah (PBUH), indicating that following the guidance of the Prophet and his household (AS) take humans to Heaven. His Eminence pointed that the path in life might be formative and includes humans and others, as it might be legislative and includes only humans, and this is the path of obedience to Allah that leads to Afterlife happiness.

This came during the seventh Ramadan night event held in His Eminence's office in Baghdad, on Saturday, 20/7/2013.

His Eminence highlighted that the formative path means the laws that Allah the Almighty established to ensure that all existing creatures are virtuous and take the road that Allah wants, whereas the legislative path is particular to humans and is a set of injunctions of law that Allah the Almighty has ordered to abide by and has made them a reason for the guidance of humans. His Eminence added that the right path means, among other things, no for immoderation and no for carelessness, clarifying that this path should not go beyond devotion and reach exaggeration on one hand, but must rise above negligence and should not neglect the injunction of the law.
