

Receiving the Governor of Wasit, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Stresses the Importance of Administrative Revolution to Eliminate the Killing Routine

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, stressed that officials should go to the field and oversee the services provided to people, calling on governors to launch an administrative revolution to eliminate the killing routine that is hampering the functioning of local governments or of the federal government. His Eminence focused on the importance of team work and cooperation among the blocs in the local government of Wasit city, for this would promote the level of services and reflect a positive image of provincial councils. His Eminence, while receiving the governor of Wasit, Mahmoud Al Mulla Talal, in his Baghdad office on Monday, 9/9/2013, called to implement the program of the Citizen Bloc through all available resources, in view of the program's direct contact with the citizens and their needs as it is the fruit of science-based studies that were conducted for each province, including Wasit.
