

Heading the Extended Shura Meeting, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Commends the Field Presence of the Citizen Bloc and its Closeness to the People

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, commended the field presence of the Citizen Bloc, its closeness to the people and advocacy for their rights, stressing the need to ensure communication with the people, to learn their concerns and problems and seek to solve them. He indicated that the Citizen Bloc always endorses the laws and projects that serve primarily the interest of the Iraqi people.

This came when His Eminence was heading the extended Shura meeting held by the Martyr of the Niche Movement in his Baghdad office on Monday, 16/9/2013.

His Eminence underlined that the Martyr of the Niche Movement is now at its best times for having good relations with all political forces, pointing out that Iraq is going through a significant phase that requires more national solidarity. He stressed that the Martyr of the Niche Movement should communicate with all political forces, so as to guarantee the interest of the country and citizens.
