

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: The Success of the Local Government of Wasit Indicates the Success of the Martyr of the Niche Movement throughout Iraq

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, stressed the need to support the local government in Wasit, explaining that the success of this government is a success of the Martyr of the Niche movement throughout Iraq.

This came when His Eminence was meeting the female members of the Martyr of the Niche movement in El Kut on Saturday 21/9/2013.

His Eminence called members of the movement to communicate with the people and explain their project to each citizen Iraqi, underlining the importance of garnering and mobilizing the capacities towards to right direction. He also reiterated the significance of introducing innovation in the political and media discourse while preserving authenticity, adding that the movement is experiencing very positive circumstances, especially in its relations with all political forces. He finally indicated that the secret behind the movement's success is the moral aspect which is mainly built on the trust in Allah, communication with everyone and reaching the end by the use of means founded on the end itself.
