

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Receives the Delegation of the White National Bloc Led by MP Jamal al-Batikh

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received Monday, 30/9/2013 in his office in Baghdad, the delegation of the White National Bloc led by MP Jamal al-Batikh, where his Eminence stressed the need to face challenges with more national unity and to cooperate for the service of the country and the citizens.

For its part, the White National Bloc said it discussed with Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim the next stage and how to find a way out of the political crises, appraising the efforts of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim in developing the national projects and making them a success.