

In the 8th Night of Muharram, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Ali al Akbar Had Insight and Was the Bearer of Hussein's Project

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, said Ali al-Akbar had insight and was the bearer of the project of his father Hussein and he was the first among Ahl-al-Bayt to fight the enemies. This came in the speech delivered by his Eminence in the mourning assembly held in his office in Baghdad on Tuesday, 12/11/2013.

His Eminence explained that the message project needs more clarity to benefit the people, maintaining that the Allah provides His servants with the means of subsistence, and all what Allah bestows are boons. He added that the insight brings believers closer to Allah and that the challenges faced by the Iraqi people made it firmer and more adhered to the project of Hussein (AS). He also called for turning down the volume of the Hussein assemblies and even the voice of Quran because the loud sound is harmful to elders, patients and kids, stating that the open air is for everyone and noise must be reduced.

