

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Receives the Secretary General of Al Fadila Islamic Party, Hashem al-Hashemi

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received Saturday, 16/11/2013 in his office in Baghdad the secretary general of Al Fadila Islamic Party and the accompanying delegation.

During the meeting, they discussed the general scene of the political process, the regional developments and the next elections. His Eminence reiterated the importance of common visions so as to form a consistent party that can be at the service of the country and the citizens.

For his part, the MOP Ammar Taameh, from Al Fadila party, praised the proposals of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, underlining the convergence of his party's visions and those of the latter.

