

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Confirms the Victory of the Hussein Project albeit Challenges

During his walk from Basra to Karbala in performance of the rituals of the visit on the occasion of the 40th day of Ashura memory, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, confirmed that the reformatory project of Imam Hussein defeated all the challenges facing it, praising the walk of millions on the roads of Iraq towards the mausoleum of Imam Hussein (AS), stating that the threats of terrorists made the people stick more to their Imam and the course of Ahlul-al-Bayt (AS). Here, he greeted the followers of Ahlul-al-Bayt from the Gulf countries who come on their feet to commemorate the 40th day visit . Moreover, his Eminence led the maghrib prayer in one of the Hussein parades in Assura region on his way towards the sacred Karbala.
