

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Visits High Authorities in the Holy Najaf

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, visited the high religious authorities in the holy Najaf: Ayatollah Sayyid Mohamed Said Al Hakim, Ayatollah Sheikh Bashir Al Najafi and Ayatollah Sheikh Ishak El Fayad, each separately, on Thursday 19/12/2013.

His Eminence listened to the valuable opinions and directions of the great authorities with regards to the developments in the country.

Moreover, His Eminence presented an explanation of the recent political developments and he reiterated the vision of the Supreme Council and of the Martyr of the Niche movement which states the need to abide by the instructions and recommendations of religious authorities to solve the current crisis through appeasement and dialogue among different Iraqi parties and through meeting the legitimate needs of Iraqi people as per the law and the constitution.
