

In His Meeting with the Sheikhs and Leaders of Al Shaghanba Tribe, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Stresses the Need to Choose the Competent and Harmonious Team in the Coming Elections

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, underlined that elections are an opportunity to choose the most competent people, stressing the need to choose the competent and harmonious team in the coming elections. His Eminence highlighted the importance of comprehensive solutions and the deficiency of patch solutions and stressed on holding elections on time.

This came when his eminence was receiving a number of sheikhs and leaders of Al Shaghabna tribe in Imam Muhsin Al Hakim center in Baghdad, on Tuesday, January 21st, 2014.

His Eminence assured that Al Shaghabna tribe is one of the pillars of the new Iraq for the bright history and great reputation it has with regards to sacrifice, adding that the Iraqi project needs patience; therefore, partners in the country must be contained, explaining that the logic of force does not build a State.

From their part, the sheikhs and leaders of Al Shaghabna tribe lauded the initiatives of Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim (Basra, Iraq's economic capital) and (Rehabilitation of Maysan), as well as the initiatives for Al Ahwar and the last initiative for Al Anbar, which, they considered, is an expression of a comprehensive vision to build the country.
