

In His Meeting with the Sheikhs and Leaders of Al Gheran Tribe, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: Iraq Will Only be Built by Adopting a Correct Vision and Guaranteeing Everyone's Interests

The head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, assured that Iraq will only be built by adopting a correct vision and guaranteeing the interests of all its components and secrets, stressing that Iraq, with its civilization, wealth and capacities, can play a positive and major role in the region.

This came when Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim was receiving a number of sheikhs and leaders of Al Gheran tribe from the different provinces, in his office in Baghdad, on Monday, January 27th, 2014. His Eminence stressed the need to work with logic and a state-building approach, because it is approach needed to build a strong and harmonious team that gets the country to safety. He explained that Iraq's destiny is to be built through the support and solidarity of the citizens from all components, reiterating his support to the security forces and Iraqi tribes in Anbar in their fight against terrorists of Daesh and Qaeda.

His Eminence also called for a large participation in the coming parliamentary elections to make a change for the better and to serve the country and the citizens.