

During His Meeting with the Second Rasafa Organizations for the Martyr of the Niche Movement, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Stresses Iraq's Need for Building the State not the Authority

The Head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, stressed Iraq's need for building the State not the authority, indicating that the project of building the state provides solutions and visions to overcome crises without any discrimination against people. His Eminence called politicians to stay away from the language of complaint and to provide instead solutions in the right time, explaining that the security situation can be solved through a comprehensive strategic security vision based on planning and implemented with clean tools. He added that the problem of Anbar can be solved by isolating terrorist organizations from the public, underlining that this is what "Our Resisting Anbar" initiative affirmed.

This came when His Eminence was meeting a large group of second Rasafa organizations for the Martyr of the Niche, in El Sadr city on Monday, March 3, 2014.

His Eminence called the organizations to urge the people to participate in the elections, explain the Citizen Bloc's program to them and work for their service. He finally assured that serving the people is the goal the Martyr of the Niche movement, and whoever does not work for this goal is not a member of the movement.
