

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Discusses Latest Developments and Coming Elections with Muqtada Al Sadr

The head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, met his eminence Sayyid Muqtada Al Sadr, leader of the Sadrist movement, in the latter's office in Najaf Al Ashraf on Saturday, April 5th, 2014. The two sides discussed the latest Iraqi developments, particularly the coming elections and political crises. Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim reiterated the importance of unifying the political discourse within national visions and enhancing it through a constructive and honest dialogue among political forces, insisting on competing honorably and presenting electoral programs that address the crises of citizens.

From his part, Sayyid Muqtada Al Sadr assured that his meeting with Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim was fruitful as they had reviewed the general political scene and the coming elections.
