

Presiding the Shura of the Jihad and Construction Movement, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Stresses the Need to Win for the Project and for the Service of the Country and the Citizens

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the need to win for the project and for the service of the country and the citizens, assuring that the citizen's coalition is not a seeker of power but rather seeks to serve the country and citizens.

This came when his eminence was heading the Shura meeting of the Jihad and Construction movement on Monday, May 26, 2014.

The attendees discussed with his eminence the election results and the political developments in the country and the region.

For its part, the Jihad and Construction movement underlined in its meeting with his eminence Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim the importance of pursuing the work, supporting the project targeting the country and citizens and providing services to the people.