

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with the British Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs the Developments of the Security and Political Situation in the Country

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received in his office in Baghdad, Mr. Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs on Thursday, June 26, 2014, the British William Hague who is currently visiting Iraq. During the meeting, they discussed the developments of the security and political situation in the country. For his part, his Eminence stressed the importance of forming a government with a clear platform and a well-defined vision composed of a harmonious team based on the partnership between all powers, pointing out to the importance of solidarity and unity between all Iraqis as a way out of the current crisis.

