

In a Meeting with Mr. Rowsch Nuri Shaways, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Calls on the Political Movements to Quickly Run their Candidates in order to Form the Government

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim urged the political movements to quickly run their candidates in order to form the harmonious government represented by all the components of the Iraqi people, calling on everyone to assume their responsibilities in order to rise Iraq and end its political and security crises.

This came in a meeting held between his Eminence in his office in Baghdad, on Monday, June 30, 2014 and Mr. Rowsch Nuri Shaways, the deputy Prime Minister and member of the Kurdistan Democratic Party.

For his part, the Kurdistan official said the Kurds want that a government reassuring to everyone be formed.