

In his Meeting with Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, Mr. Yonadam Kanna Praises the Positions of his Eminence and his Advocacy for the Rights, Security and Stability of the Christian Community

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim reiterated his denouncement and condemnation of the crimes perpetrated by the terrorist gangsters of Daesh who are forcing the Christians and other Iraqi components in Mosul to migrate, urging the Iraqi people to defend their cities and regions and never give them up.

This came in a meeting held between Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, and Mr. Yonadam Kanna, head of al Rafideen National List at the Iraqi Council of Representatives, at his Eminence's office in Baghdad on Thursday, July 24, 2014.

For his part, Mr. Kanna praised the clear positions of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim in defending the rights of the Christian community in the country and his care for their security and stability.
