

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Discusses with Mr. Mahmoud al-Mashhadani the Developments of the Political Situation and the Formation of the Government within the Constitutional Deadlines

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, has discussed with the leader in al-Wataniya Coalition and the former speaker of the Iraqi Council of Representatives the developments of the political situation in the country. His Eminence said it is important to comply with the constitutional deadlines when forming the new government. This came in a meeting between Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim held in his office in Baghdad, on Monday, August 4, 2014 with Mr. al-Mashhadani.

For his part, Mr. al-Mashhadani stressed the need to develop a global road map for the next stage, noting that al-Wataniya Coalition will approve the candidate of the National Coalition for Prime Minister.
