

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Meets Al Mutlaq and Discusses with him Political Developments and Ways to Support Refugees

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met in his office in Baghdad on Wednesday, August 20, 2014, the head of Iraqi Front for National Dialogue, Dr. Saleh Al Mutlaq.

The two sides discussed the Iraqi political developments and the mechanism to form the coming government, as well as the situation of the displaced. His eminence highlighted the importance of forming the government out of ministers characterized with integrity and competent, urging the political blocs to reduce their requests in order to establish a government capable of overcoming the current security and political crises. His eminence finally called to invest the international and regional support to Iraq insomuch as to achieve the interests of all its citizens without any exceptions.

New layer...

