

In a Meeting with Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, the Representative of the Lebanese Speaker of Parliament: The Iraqi People Can Resist any Exterior Winds that Threaten their Land and Future

Mr. Ayub Homayed, representative of the Lebanese Speaker of Parliament, said the Iraqi people proved they can resist any exterior winds that threaten their land, future and any good they yearn for, praising the pivotal role of Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim in lining up the efforts and promoting the Iraqi national unity.

This came in his meeting with Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, held on Sunday 21, 2014 at his office in Baghdad, hoping for the victory of the Iraqi people who derive their power from their history and authentic civilization and expressing the solidarity of the Lebanese people with their Iraqi brothers in countering the evil and terrorist forces.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim conveyed through the representative of the Lebanese Speaker of Parliament his greetings and wishes to the Lebanese government and the brother Lebanese people for more progress and development.
