

In his Meeting with the President of Iraqi Kurdistan, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim said it is important to pull together to face the challenges of terrorism in Iraq.

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met on Sunday, September 21, 2014, his excellency the President of Kurdistan, Mr. Massoud Al Barazani. The two sides discussed during the meeting the political developments in Iraq and the region as well as the security situation. His eminence stressed the importance of joining the efforts of all political forces and Iraqi components in order to overcome the crisis caused by ISIS by threatening all components. His eminence also highlighted the importance of using the international and regional support offered to Iraq in facing ISIS and terrorist groups. It should be mentioned that a delegation from the leaders of the Supreme Council accompanied Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim to meet Mr. Barazani; the meeting was also attended by Dr. Hoshyar Zebari and Dr. Rowsch Nuri Shaways.