

During His Visit to the Islamic Scholars Union in Sulaymaniyah, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Assures the Certainty Of Iraqis' Victory Over Terrorism

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, assured the certainty of Iraq's victory in its battle against the terrorist group of ISIS, indicating that Iraqis are defending their country and their dignity; they have a just cause and The Almighty will make them undoubtedly win.

This came during his eminence's visit to the Islamic Scholars Union in Sulaymaniyah on Tuesday, September 23, 2014.

His eminence also highlighted the role of religious scholars in raising the awareness of the people and revealing ISIS' goals of harming Islam and sowing hateful sectarian discord.
