

Presiding over the Enlarged Central Shura Meeting, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Stresses the Need to Harness the Executive Positions for the Good of the Citizens and of the Nation

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the need to harness the executive positions for the good of the citizens and of the nation, saying it's important to implement the government program and to pass as soon as possible the laws that serve the citizens. He considered the government program as reassuring for everybody, calling on the members of the Martyr of the Niche movement who hold executive positions to approach the citizens, as well as their concerns and problems.

This came during the enlarged central shura meeting presided over by his Eminence at his office in Baghdad on Monday, September 29, 2014.

His Eminence emphasized the importance of the national alliance and to protect it by institutionalizing it and maintaining its unity, calling for exploiting the international support against the ISIS, while praising the attitude of the religious authority in establishing the democracy and mobilizing the popular forces against the ISIS and the terrorist groups.
