

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Visits Dar Al-Hekma School of Islamic Sciences in Holy Najaf

In the context of his visit to the province of Holy Najaf, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, visited Dar El Hekma school of Islamic Sciences on Wednesday, October 15, 2014.

When meeting the school teachers and students, his eminence stressed the need to take care of education, schooling and knowledge acquirement, explaining that humans become joyful and pride when they get education and knowledge and they should transfer their knowledge and abilities to others in order to serve the community.

His eminence learned about the studies at the school, and about the problems and obstacles hindering progress and creativity.

It should be mentioned that Dar El Hekma school of Islamic sciences which is affiliated to the scientific Hawza in Holy Najaf was founded by the religious leader Grand Ayatollah His eminence Sayyid Mohsen Al Hakim (May Allah be pleased with him) in 1968.
