

In the Eighth Evening of Muharram, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim: Iraq and the Iraqi people will Play a Vital Role in History and Will Assume Great Responsibilities in the Future

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, affirmed that the ordeals and pains that the Iraqi people is experiencing will eventually increase their determination and enhance their victory. His eminence indicated that Iraq and the Iraqi people will play a vital role in history and will assume great responsibilities in the future, stressing the need to diagnose the right and hold on to it in contrary to knowing the wrong and refusing it. He stated that committing to the obedience to Allah, His messenger and Ahl Al Bayt and keeping away from misguidance and aberrance will ensure insight for humans and that insight will make humans hold on more to this obedience, will end ignorance and ensure happiness to humans in life and the hereafter.

This came in the eighth evening of Muharram of 1436 A.H. held at his eminence's office in Baghdad on Saturday, November 1st, 2014.

Furthermore, his eminence pointed out that the school of authentic Islam of the Messenger of Allah (AS) and his household (AS) encourages learning, consciousness and reflection unlike the other schools that forbid knowledge and clarification. He finally explained that loyalty to Ahl Al Bayt (AS) means having the knowledge and evidence so that the human can hold on to this authentic path and stay away from wrongdoing and misguidance.
