

During a Meeting with the Head of the Council of Dhi Qar, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Calls on the Provincial Council to Discuss with the Ministers of Oil Transport and Oil the Establishment of the Dhi Qar Airport and Oil Company

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, called on the provincial council of Dhi Qar to discuss with the minister of transport and the citizen's bloc the establishment of the Dhi Qar airport, calling in the same time to discuss with the minister of oil and the citizen's bloc the establishment of the Dhi Qar oil company. His eminence explained that the construction of the airport and oil company could ensure thousands of opportunities for unemployed citizens and bring about prosperity and development in the province.

This came when his eminence was meeting the head of the provincial council of Dhi Qar Yehya Al Mesherfawi, in his eminence's office in Baghdad on Saturday, November 15th, 2014. His eminence stressed the need to establish a true partnership among the components of the national alliance inside the provincial council and to cooperate with the other forces representing the citizens of the province. He also highlighted the importance of building a strong homogeneous team with a clear vision based on a thorough study of the situation on the field in the province. His eminence finally pointed out that the province of Nasiriyah was punished by the former regime and was not given justice during the last ten years, and now it is time to repay the debt to it and provide a decent life for its people.